Date: 10.08.2024

This is to inform all students and staff members that Monday, 12th August 2024, will be observed as National Anti-Ragging Day.

As part of this observance, all students are instructed to take the anti-ragging pledge at 12:00 noon, immediately after the bell rings.

Your cooperation in upholding the values of respect and safety within our institution is greatly appreciated.

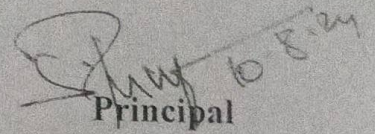

Pledge:

I solemnly pledge today that I will not indulge in any form of ragging or support ragging activities, directly or indirectly.

I will respect the dignity and individuality of my fellow students, and I will strive to create a safe and inclusive environment for everyone.

I understand that ragging is a serious offense, and I commit to reporting any incident of ragging that I witness or experience.

I believe in promoting kindness, empathy, and mutual respect, and I will do my part in making our institution free from ragging.

Report on Screening of Short Films and Documentary Films

Date: 16th August 2024

Venue: [Auditorium]

As part of the Anti-Ragging Week observance, our college organized a screening of short films and documentary films on 16th August 2024. The objective of this event was to educate students about the serious consequences of ragging and to promote a culture of respect and safety on campus through impactful visual storytelling.

The screenings were held at 3:00 PM in the college auditorium, with a large number of students and faculty members in attendance. The event was coordinated by the [Anti-Ragging committee], who selected a series of films that effectively highlighted the issues related to ragging and the importance of creating a supportive and inclusive environment.

A carefully curated selection of short films and documentaries was shown, each addressing different aspects of ragging, including its psychological impact, legal consequences, and the role of bystanders in preventing such incidents. The films were chosen for their ability to engage and inform, using real-life stories and dramatizations to convey powerful messages.

Subject: Regarding revised procedure of Anti Ragging Undertaking & Compliance submission.

Sir/Madam,

As part of UGC's initiative towards reduction of compliance burden of its stakeholders, UGC has revised the procedure for students to file online Anti Ragging undertaking. Now the procedure is completely online and student is not required to submit any hard/printed affidavit in institute.

This procedure has been changed with the view to conserve paper, to protect our environment and to reduce compliance burden of our stakeholders.

It has been observed that some prominent institutions are still following the previous exercise. You are therefore requested to adopt the revised procedure and not to receive any hard/ printed affidavit by students.

Anti-Ragging Undertaking must be filled by the students online on <http://www.antiragging.in> only. Universities/Colleges will not accept Anti Ragging Undertaking by students in Hard/Printed copy/Affidavits. (Please note that the student is not required to print & sign it as it used to be in the earlier case).

Further the compliance submission is not upto the mark by the institutions, therefore you are also requested to submit compliance on the following link:

https://www.antiragging.in/compliance_disclaimer.html

Soft copy of the Anti-Ragging Posters are also enclosed with a request to display on the prominent places in your campus areas like Admission Centre, Departments, Library, Canteen, Hostel, and Common facilities etc.

For any query in this matter, you may contact National Anti-Ragging Helpline 1800-180-5522 or email us at helpline@antiragging.in
