Objectives of the Equal Opportunity Cell:

Promoting Equal Opportunities: The primary objective of the EOC is to ensure that all members of the college community, regardless of their background or identity, have equal access to educational, employment, and other opportunities within the institution.

Preventing Discrimination and Harassment: The EOC works to create a campus environment free from discrimination, harassment, and bias based on factors such as gender, race, religion, disability, sexual orientation, or socio-economic status.

Creating Awareness and Sensitization: The EOC organizes awareness campaigns, workshops, and training sessions to educate members of the college community about issues related to diversity, equity, and inclusion. This includes promoting understanding and respect for different cultures, beliefs, and identities.

Developing Policies and Guidelines: The EOC is responsible for developing and implementing policies, guidelines, and procedures to address discrimination, harassment, and unequal treatment. This may include drafting anti-discrimination policies, grievance redressal mechanisms, and codes of conduct.

Facilitating Access and Support: The EOC works to remove barriers to participation and success for underrepresented or marginalized groups within the college. This may involve providing support services, accommodations, and resources to students, faculty, and staff who face systemic or structural barriers.
